A Speical Dream

Yesterday night, John read a science fiction book. He wants to be an astronaut because he wants to walk on the moon. He also wants to make friends with the aliens!

At that night, he had a dream when he was sleeping comfortably. He dreamed that he became an astronaut. He met some aliens on the moon. They talked to him friendly so he thought they were good aliens. Suddenly, John was attacked by some evil aliens. They used a gun to shoot John. It was so painful that he shouted, 'Ouch!'.

Mum woke him up because he shouted so loudly. She asked him if he was alright. John was very scared and cried, 'Mum!'

Thereafter, John never reads that book again. It is because he is so afraid of those aliens.
